CPYRGHT

MOSCOW, July 2 (UPI) — A

British teacher will stand trial this summer on charges of spreading anti-communist propaganda in the Soviet, his Russian lawyer said today.

The teacher, Gerald Brooke, 26, and his wife, Barbara, 25, were arrested in the Moscow apartment of some Russian acquaintances on April 27.

Mrs. Brooke was released after a night of questioning but her husband, who speaks Russian fluently, was clapped into Lubyanka Prison.

Nikolai Botovic, 53, the lawyer, appeared on behalf of American U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers and British businessman Greville Wynne when they were tried on espionage charges.
